

Know before you Go!

Don't be stuck in this...

.....when you can take the roads less traveled!!

A busy weekend is expected Downtown during Bronner Bros Mid-Winter International Hair Show. With concurrent events taking place at the GWCC, Georgia Dome and Philips Arena we encourage visitors to take advantage of these resources to plan your route and allow ample travel time prior to your scheduled competition time.

1. Take MARTA- www.itsmarta.com

MARTA, Atlanta's public transportation system, offers rapid rail and bus service that is easy to navigate.

Tip for first-time MARTA users

Want to learn everything there is to know about riding MARTA? Check out this printable "Rookie's Guide to Riding Marta." With information on fares, Breeze Cards, hours of operation and station information, this handy guide will get you where you need to go.

How to ride MARTA from the Airport:

MARTA's Airport rail station is located next to Baggage Claim. If you did not purchase a Breeze Card online in advance (www.breezecard.com) you can buy one in any MARTA rail station. Station Agents are available to help. Machines accept credit, debit, and cash. Ride the elevator or escalator up to the train platform and board the next train. All Red and Gold trains travel north from the Airport.

3. Know where to park-

Parking around the Georgia World Congress Center-

If you have not pre-purchased a pass for parking in the Red Deck, spaces are currently very limited and are expected to sell out. Use the Blue (4) or Yellow (6) lots and take the GWCC complimentary campus shuttle to the building. Shuttles run approximately every 20 minutes.
